

8 questions to ask your high school senior

1. What sort of future career, training, and/or college major are you envisioning for yourself these days?
2. What help—if any—do you want now that you are more responsible for your calendar, finances, medical care, laundry, food, and other daily logistics?
3. What sorts of friends do you hope to make in this next season, and how (and where and when) do you think you can best develop those friendships?
4. What do you think you want to look for in a church or on-campus fellowship group once you've graduated from youth group?
5. What are some ways you hope your connection with God will grow in this next chapter? What kinds of things do you think you'll do to further than connection from week to week?
6. How do you hope to serve others, and be salt and light, in this next season?
7. What sort of communication rhythms would you like to have with me and your other family members when you're living away from home?
8. What adult can you call or text—other than me—when you are struggling, feel like you've failed, or need to talk about a challenge you're facing?
